

WILL CONSULT THE SENATORS ON THE TARIFF

Ways and Means Committee of House, However, Will Prepare Bills, According to Usual Custom.

UNDERWOOD GIVES VIEWS ON MATTER

President-Elect Wilson to Decide as to Legislation to Be Considered at the Coming Extra Session.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—To President-elect Wilson will be left the task of determining whether the tariff alone is to be considered at the special session of congress next spring or whether special legislation shall be taken up, or whether the tariff is to be revised as a whole, in a single bill, or by schedules, one section at a time.

Representative Oscar W. Underwood, chairman of the ways and means committee of the house and Democratic tariff leader, said today he would make no decision on either of these points until he had talked with President-elect Wilson. He will meet Mr. Wilson, probably in New York, late in December or early in January and the plans for the extra session then will be elaborated and given to the public.

Underwood's Views.

"I can express now only my opinion as a member of the committee," said Mr. Underwood. "I favor going through the entire tariff law and revising and reforming every schedule. Whether that revision will be in a single bill or in a series of bills, each to cover a single schedule, will not be determined by the committee until we know Mr. Wilson's desires."

"The house desires to work in entire harmony with the president, and to that end it will be guided by his wishes as fully as possible," Mr. Underwood talked with many members of the house today and received various expressions of opinion as to what the present and the extra session should do.

The ways and means committee will have a general meeting late next week and the Democratic members then will begin plans for the opening of hearings in January at which all persons will be allowed to present their tariff views.

Will Consult Senators.

The desire of senate Democrats to participate in the original making of the tariff bills, emphasized during the last few days by senators who had returned to Washington, drew a definite statement from Mr. Underwood that the senate would be fully consulted in all matters of preparation, but the house would reserve to itself its full authority to make the original tariff bills.

"I think the members of the ways and means committee would be willing to confer freely with the members of the finance committee of the senate, as well as with individual members of the senate, with reference to a tariff bill," he said.

"We should endeavor, if it is possible to do so, to send a bill to the senate which is going to meet with the approval of the Democrats of the senate when it gets there."

House Is Responsible.

"But I think that is as far as you can go. You cannot have a general committee of the two houses to write a tariff bill, because the ways and means committee is responsible to a different constituency than the finance committee of the senate. We have to bring in a bill which will be satisfactory to the membership of the house and the senate finance committee has to bring in one that is satisfactory to the membership of the senate."

"If we had a general committee and the senators through their votes sent something to the house that did not meet with the approval of the house"

SYRUP OF FIGS IS BEST FOR A CHILD

If Its Little Tongue Is Coated, Breath Feverish, Stomach Sour and Bowels Clogged.

Every mother immediately realizes after giving her child delicious Syrup of Figs that this is the ideal laxative and physic for the children. Nothing else regulates the little one's stomach, liver and bowels so promptly; besides they dearly love its delightful fig taste.

If your child isn't feeling well, resting nicely, eating regularly and acting naturally it is a sure sign that its little insides need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or your little one has stomachache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, tongue coated, give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs and in a few hours all the foul, constipated, clogged up waste, undigested food and sour bile will gently move on and out of its little bowels without nausea, griping or weakness, and you will surely have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not dragging your children, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics, it cannot be harmful.

Mothers should always keep Syrup of Figs handy. It is the only stomach, liver and bowel cleanser and regulator needed—a little given today will save a sick child tomorrow.

Full directions for children of all ages and grownups plainly printed on the package.

Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. This is the delicious tasting, genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered. (Advertisement.)

It would be making us stand for something that our constituencies would not stand for. The result is we have to prepare our bill with the sentiment of the house in view and we cannot afford to surrender that to anybody outside of the house.

"There probably will be differences between the two houses in the end arising on the bill, but when these differences go to conference they can be settled by compromise and the house which prevails will be responsible for the compromise. The senate may put amendments into the house bill which the house would take as a matter of compromise in the end, but which it would not take at all as an original suggestion from the ways and means committee."

Urges Publicity Bureau.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—David Mulvane of Kansas, who had charge of the western Republican headquarters at Chicago during the last campaign, reached Washington today to confer upon President Taft that Republican headquarters should be opened in Washington as soon as possible and that a publicity bureau also should be organized. He discussed political conditions with the president following the cabinet meeting.
